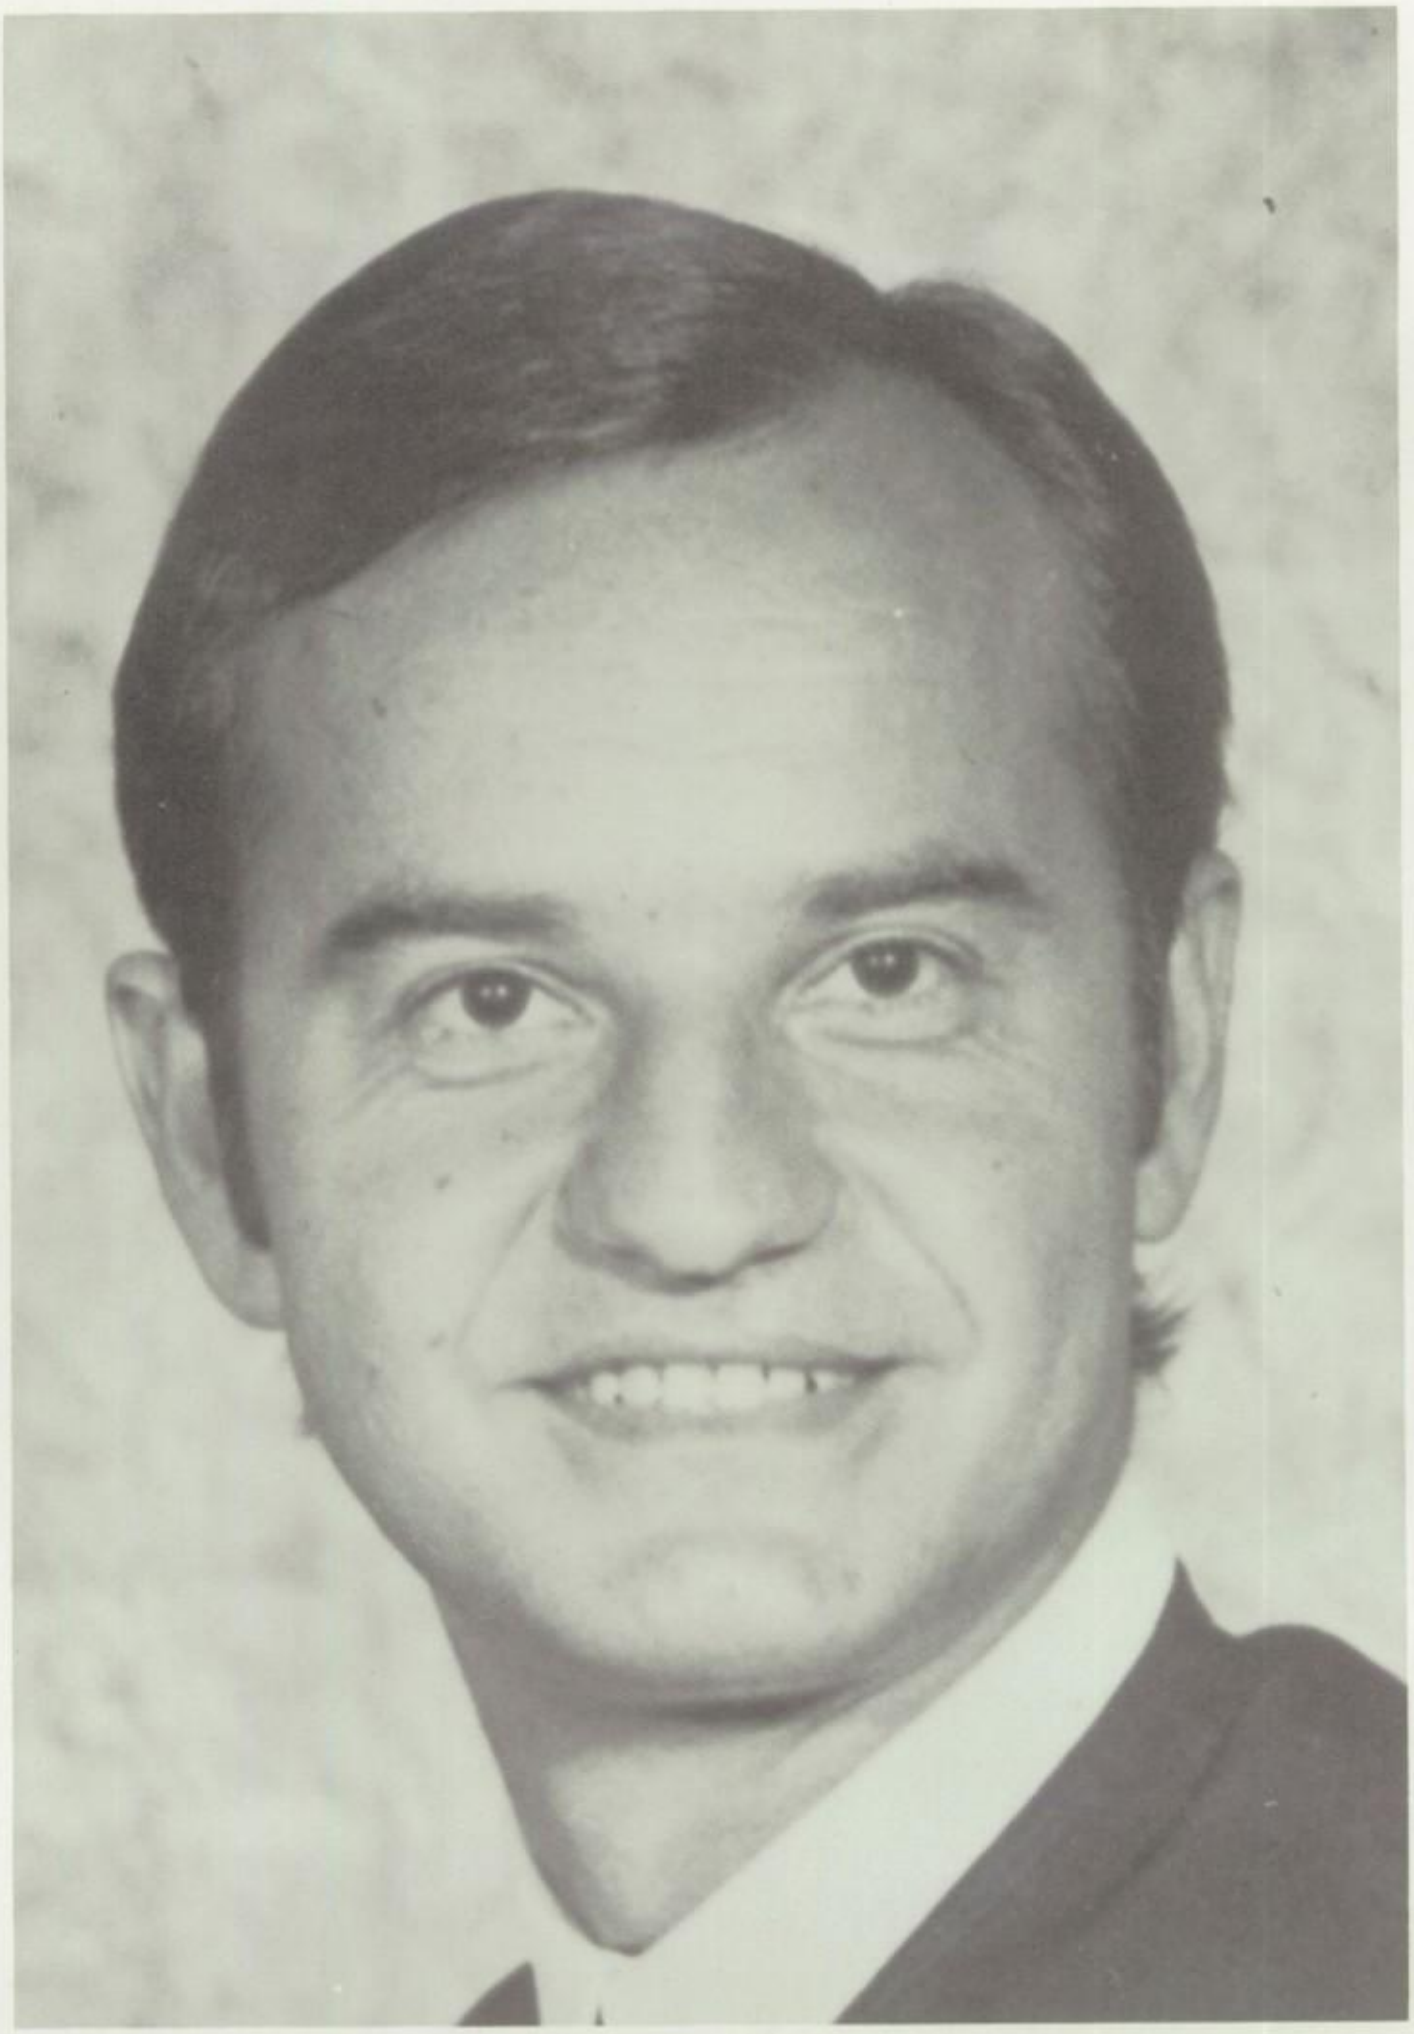
CISTERCIAN PREPARATORY SCHOOL
IRVING, TEXAS



Fr. Bernard Marton

The senior class dedicates this annual to Fr. Bernard, the one man whose motivation and prayers have seen us through these nine years of awesome change. May our mutual struggles and joys prove a continual source of inspiration in our separate treks forward.

1976 was the best football season for the Hawks in the history of the Cistercian Preparatory School. In spite of predictions made by local newspapers for the T.I.S.C. championship, this year's football team had the spirit and enthusiasm to surprise every foe on the season schedule. This year the Hawks were up against teams they had never played before, but along with these were the old rivals that still had to be defeated to capture the conference title. This had always been nothing more than a dream to previous Hawk teams. Coach Cahill, using carefully planned tactics, fired up a Hawk team that surprised the whole conference.

When Spring football ended, nothing was more enjoyable than the two months of summer vacation. But this year's team concentrated on strength, so each player was urged to keep himself in shape both physically and mentally all summer long. The goal was to reduce the possibility of injury because every player was important in the drive for a championship season. No sooner had summer practice begun than everyone was eager for it to end. Neither players nor coaches enjoyed fun or relaxation. Everyone knew the importance of "two-a-days." Out of this strenuous work grew an eager football team. There was also a growing realization that each player was committed to the final goal - a unified team effort, one that would produce a championship team.

The season opener was a home game against Garland Christian. As usual everyone was tense in the locker room because it was finally time to see what kind of team the Hawks could be. Running back Robert Hall scored the first touchdown of the season off of an eight yard run. The offense had put itself together and was able to control the ball well. Garland Christian couldn't do much against the Hawk defense led by middle linebacker Joe Blanchard and special linebacker Paul Smith. Oscar Arras scored just before halftime upping the lead to 14-0 in favor of the Hawks. The Hawks came back in the second half determined not to let down and defeated Garland Christian 29-0.

After their first victory, the Hawks knew that the main ingredients for a victorious team must be leadership, desire, and no injuries. The second game was to be one of the most physical games of the season. The Hawks were to host the Wichita Falls Notre Dame Knights. The Knights, defeated by the Hawks in the previous football season in which they were champions of their conference, would be seeking revenge. This had to be one of the most respected teams on the Hawks' schedule, and every player knew what to expect from them. There were no surprises. Neither the Hawk offense nor defense intimidated the Knights. Although both teams were unable to score in the first quarter, the Hawks finally plowed down field in the second quarter to make the halftime score 7-0. The Hawks came back for the second half ready to score again, but the Knights struggled successfully to stop their offensive drive. However, Notre Dame was unable to overcome the Hawk defense and had to give up the ball. The offensive line fought hard to give the running backs something to run through. Clint Crawford finally scored in the third quarter and the tally was 14-0. The Knights came back, however, missed the extra point, and made it 14-6.

The third game of the season was the last home game for the Hawks until the second half of the season. The team, First Baptist, was the second of teams never played before on the '76 schedule. Not much was known about them and the Hawks weren't sure what to expect. First Baptist took the first kickoff and a bit later plunged over to score. In the earlier stages of the game, the opponents looked as if they would run away with it. However, the Hawk defense called upon a reserve of determination and reversed the momentum. The offense took its cue and began running and passing the team to a 33-13 victory.

The Hawks moved on into the season with pride and confidence, but the fourth week of the schedule meant not having the comfort of playing on the home field. The Hawks faced one of the biggest and toughest teams in the conference, Fort Worth Country Day. This year proved to be similar to previous years. Country Day had its usual depth of more than ninety players. Cistercian won the toss and had the first possession. As the Falcons kicked off, it looked like things were not going to go well for the Hawks. Confusion between the receivers forced the offense to start play from its own twenty yard line; however, Clint Crawford blasted around left end in the first play for eighty yards and a touchdown. Country Day struck in the second quarter and it was obvious the Hawks were losing momentum. The halftime score was an unbelievable 30-7 in favor of the Falcons. The Hawks were tired and replacements were hard to come by. Tackles James Wehrmann and Ted Strenk suffered disabling injuries and the coach called on Tom Stimson and Warren Andres to fill in. The Hawks' small but quick offensive line came back the second half determined to strike back but found the deficit too great to overcome as the game ended 38-16.

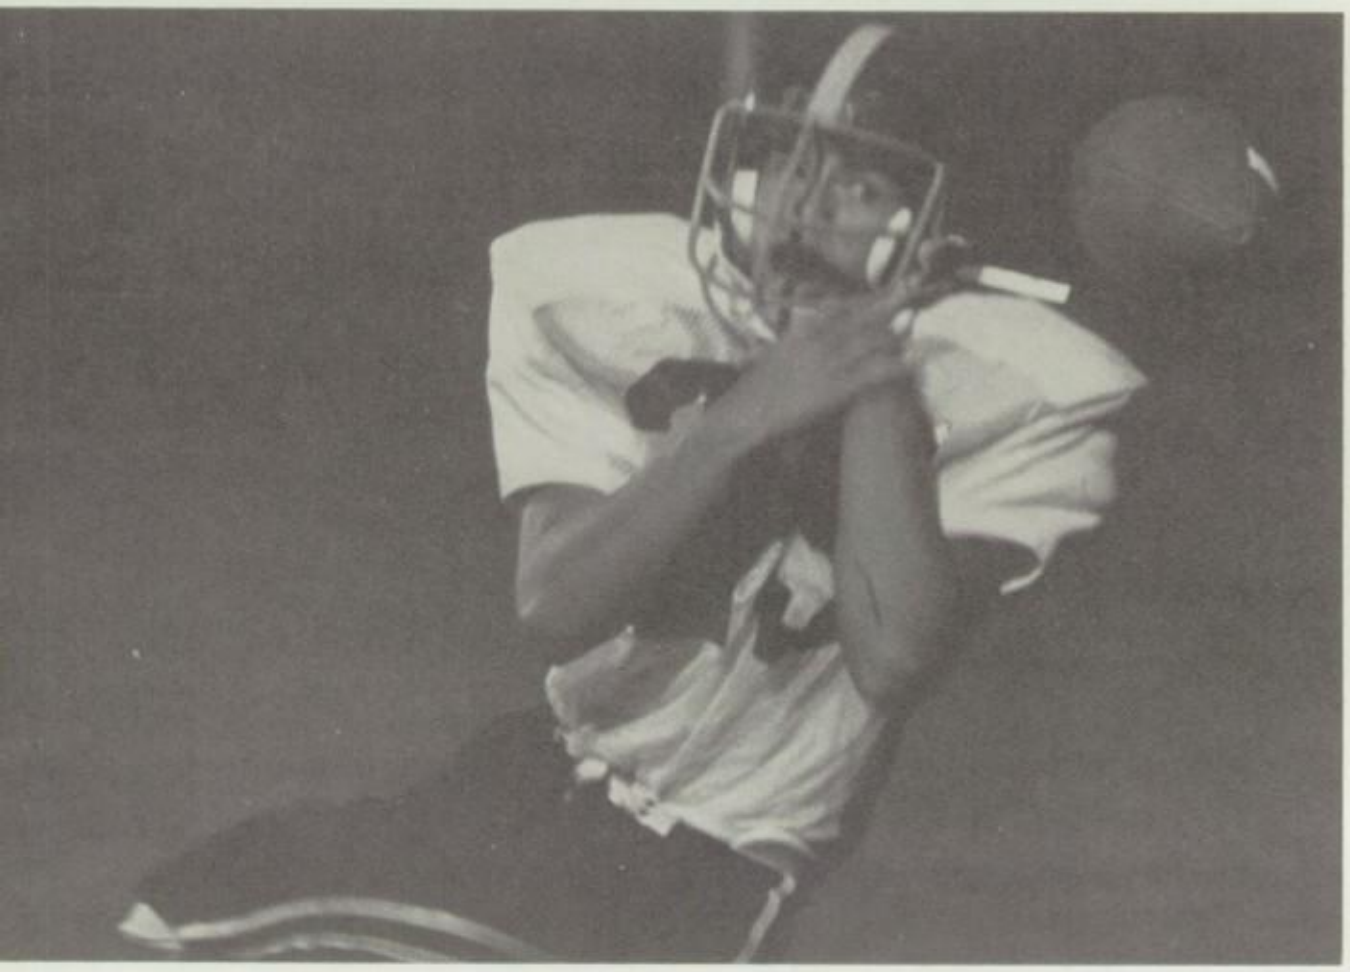
MIDDLE: Clint Crawford goes for a ride.
BOTTOM: Rick Sanchez and Andre Stuart have things under control.

The Falcon game was a hard blow for the Hawks and it marred a perfect record of 3-0. The Hawks now faced an important game with the Trinity Christian Trojans. They would have to prove they were able to regain their lost momentum and continue their drive for the T.I.S.C. title. The Trojans were of the same size and speed as the Hawks. It began as a game of turnovers as both offensive teams were unable to control the ball. Only after the Trojan quarterback ran thirty yards for a touchdown did the score begin to tally up. As the second half began the Hawks took command and showed what they had. The Hawks' defense, taking things into their own hands, forced a punt and provided safe escape for "Rabbit" John Nicholson as he scampered fifty yards for a touchdown. The fired-up defense forced another turnover allowing the offense to march doggedly down field as center Marc Sissom, guards Joe Blanchard and Rick Sanchez, and tackles Warren Andres and Tom Stimson blasted holes in the Trojans' defensive front. When John Nicholson crossed the goal line the score became 14-6. The Trojans quickly retaliated finding paydirt through the air and changing the score to 14-12, and in the fourth quarter threatening again when the Hawks' defense stiffened and turned them back. A final Hawk drive capped by another Nicholson touchdown provided the final score of 22-12.



With the mid-season record, 4 and 1, the Hawks made ready for the Fort Worth Christian Cardinals, a team with an unblemished record. Cistercian was eager to destroy the Cardinals since they took the Hawks lightly and gave them little respect. From the beginning to the very end, the Hawks showed skill and authority, and with every possession of the ball, the offense threatened the Cardinals by breaking deep into their territory. The first half was a tough one and the Cardinals were very surprised at the Hawks' "straight at 'em" tactics. The half time score was 14-6 in favor of the Cardinals. Cistercian was ready for the second half and freshman end

Michael Donohoe scored with a tip-toe catch in the endzone, which made the score 14-12, as the extra point was missed. As it appeared that the Cardinals were losing momentum, they scored on a kickoff return. The extra point attempt failed and the score was 20-12. Time was running out as the Hawks fought for every yard trying to score. Despite the increasing momentum of the Hawks, time ran out and the Cardinals were saved the embarassment of at least being tied. The statistics proved the score too lopsided because Cistercian had outplayed and physically beaten Fort Worth Christian. But the fact remains that time ran out leaving a Cardinal win, 20-12.

The Hawks were out of the race for first place but that didn't discourage the team. They were to play the next game against the Trinity Valley Trojans. The Hawks were ready and moved with great strength and quickness against the Trojans. Offensively they worked like a "well-oiled" machine. The line did its job and Cistercian was able to control the Trojans so that they were unable to score a single point. The Hawks blasted the Trojans 38-0.

Once again, the Hawks were off to another away game. This would be the fifth game played away from the home field. The Cistercian Hawks traveled to Muenster, Texas, to play Sacred Heart. The Tigers were fast and well-organized. The Hawks were unable to settle down enough to control the ball on offense. The game dragged on as the Tigers did their thing, while Cistercian was never really able to get it together. The Hawks finally scored in the second half, but the Sacred Heart Tigers were able to secure an easy victory by ripping Cistercian 49-6.

The Hawks really experienced the feeling of defeat, but that defeat had to be forgotten so they could return to host Dallas Christian in the annual Homecoming game. The Hawks proved that they were able to rebuild and come back with pride. Their reputation was a bit tarnished by the previous week's game, but the Hawks were determined to bounce back. On the home field, the Hawks were able to use such an advantage and since Homecoming was a must for victory, they didn't let the school down. The team was once again victorious against Dallas Christian, winning their Homecoming game 24-7.

The tenth and final game of the season was something the Hawks had been waiting for all year. The Hawks were to meet their cross-town rival, the Greenhill Hornets. Being defeated by the Hornets in the '75 football season obviously meant that the Hawks were out for revenge. But much to both teams' surprise was a difficulty in controlling the ball. The rivalry between both teams was very much in existence as every yard, play, penalty, and point counted. The game was heads up ball with a race to the finish line. The Hawks were unable to contain the Hornets in the second half long enough to give the offensive a chance to start a drive. The opportunities were there for the Hawks to score, but they were unable to use them to their advantage and the Hornets came out on top, winning 15-12.

The 76-77 Cistercian Hawks' varsity soccer program can only be described as excellent. Under the direction of new ead coach Mike Renshaw and his sidekick Charlie DeLong, the Hawks became a confident unit of players. A new mphasis on skill and teamwork proved to be a needed change from past regimes' goals of guts, determination and tness. The team consisted of a well-balanced offense, which scored an all-time Cistercian high of 30 goals; and the eague leading defense, which allowed only 7 goals during the entire season.

The first game of the season saw the Hawks travelling to face cross-town rival, Greenhill. Cistercian opened fast with quick goal from freshman Paul Tomaso, and then a cannon shot by Robert Hall to close the first half with a 2-0 lead nd total domination. Thus far the Hawks seemed to have matters well in hand. But Greenhill closed the gap to 1 with a uick goal in the second half. The remainder of the game proved to be a defensive struggle with Cistercian coming out n top 2-1.

With an unblemished record, the Hawks travelled to Jesuit to face the league-leading Rangers. The first half was layed sluggishly and marred by missed goals and defensive breakdowns on both sides. The half ended with Jesuit on top -0. The second half proved no better as mental lapses allowed 2 goals by the Rangers near the end of the game. Jesuit on 3-0 and vowed to beat the Hawks twice as badly in their next encounter. Luckily the Hawks had a lengthy Christ- as break to regroup.

After the break, and with an air of uncertainty about their own skill, the Hawks made their home debut against St. Marks. The game turned out to be a bitter and physical battle rather than a well-played soccer game. The Hawks led at alf 1-0. The second half was all defense as C.P.S. held on to win 1-0.

With new confidence in themselves, Cistercian went to Denton to face Selwyn. Playing on a "cow pasture," the ffense never really got unleashed. However, Junior Joe Shea and Senior Rick Martin did score goals allowing the Hawks win 2-0. The victory, though, was bitter-sweet. Super Freshman Clark Talkington was lost for the season with a roken ankle.

The Hawks had no time to mourn as they faced Greenhill the very next day. The Hawks were obviously tired from eir lack of rest, and the score was tied 0-0 at half. Paul Tomaso broke the tie with an early score in the second half. he rest of the game saw the Hawks holding off frantic Hornet attempts. The Hawks held on and won 1-0.

With a 4-1 record, the Hawks next hosted Fort Worth Country Day. C.P.S. never gave the Falcons a chance as Paul Tomaso and freshman Todd Zaayer scored goals to give the Hawks a 2-0 half-time advantage. Bruce Jilek added another goal in the second half and Cistercian won 3-0.

With four consecutive shutouts under their belt, the Hawks went to Fort Worth to play Trinity Valley. The Hawks won easily with 4 goals as Tomaso and Zaayer did most of the goal producing. However, it was a moral defeat for the defense as a goal was scored on an 11 meter free kick.

C.P.S. with a 6-1 record, came home to play Number One Jesuit. The Hawks were determined to make the "Jebbies" eat their words. The Rangers were obviously overconfident, but the Hawks weren't about to let Jesuit take another one away from them. Tomaso and Zaayer both scored first-half goals, and the Hawks led 2-0 at intermission. Bruce Jilek tacked on another goal and C.P.S. had a 3 goal advantage. The Rangers came back scoring 2 goals, one on an 11 meter. However, the Hawks held on and won 3-2.

With Jesuit behind them, the Hawks felt themselves unbeatable. Thus, confidently they went to North Dallas to meet St. Marks. With a heavy wind behind them, the Hawks could muster only one goal in the first half, that coming on a powerful shot from Robert Hall. The Hawks came out in the second half knowing they would have to give their best defensive effort of the year. The defense came through superbly as they held the Lion offense scoreless. Final: C.P.S. - 1, St. Marks - 0.

Selwyn next came to Cistercian to face the Hawks in ankle-deep mud. The Hawks made easy prey out of Selwyn, scoring a season-high eight goals. Outstanding performances were given by Sandy Bennitt and goalie Clint Crawford, who made it just another routine shut-out.

Trinity Valley was the next victim to fall at the hands of the Hawks. Goals were scored by Steve Crozier, Mark Talkington, Scott Zoppoth, and Todd Zaayer. The defense scored their seventh shut-out of the year. Final: CPS - 4, TV - 0.

The Hawks now owned a 10-1 record and had only F.W.C.D. to face. After a two week rain delay, the game was finally played. The game meant nothing in the final standings, and the Hawks seemed to care little about the outcome. At half F.W.C.D. led 1 - 0. The second half saw the Hawks totally dominate the game, but only Robert Hall could score. The game ended in a tie 1 - 1, and the Hawks ended the season with a record of 10-1-1.

Other high points of the season included a 3-2 win over MacArthur, and a 0-0 tie with W. T. White. Both teams were ranked in the top 5 in state.

FWCD player in awe of Pablo.

The season of 1976-1977 was definitely a period of rebuilding for the Cistercian basketball team. With only two seniors, one of them a regular, returning from the prior year, the prospects looked grim. The team instead looked for support from a strong crop of junior players, among them Peter Godat, Jay Lipscomb, and Chris Hellman - all starters. With this support, senior captains Mike Smith and Michael Moroney lead Cistercian to two second place tournament finishes at Tyler Street and Trinity Christian, as well as third place in the conference. Although the first part of the team's schedule, non-conference play, was less than satisfactory, the team managed to get it together in conference play.

The Hawks got off to a strong start by beating a totally new Trinity Valley team by ten points. The game was close with Cistercian holding a slim lead most of the way until the last few minutes when two successive lay-ups by Mike Smith broke the game open. With new air of confidence the team took on Fort Worth Christian and won easily.

Riding on a brief win streak and a chance to take first place in the conference, the Hawks met Dallas Christian at home. In one of the more exciting games of the season, the Chargers held off a strong Cistercian effort, winning the game on an unbelievable turnaround jumper in the final seconds. This loss seemingly did the Hawks in for the rest of the first half of conference play as they dropped successive decisions to Greenhill and Country Day.

The team began the second half of conference play at home against Fort Worth Christian. In this game the Cardinals were thoroughly routed as Cistercian put on a surprising display of offensive prowess. In the rematch with Dallas Christian, the Hawks broke to a twenty-point lead and held on to beat the Chargers on their home court - better known as the multi-level pit. Away, against Greenhill, it took the team four overtimes to dispense with the stubborn Hornets and wrap up their third consecutive win.

Hopes for first place were dashed in the next two outings as the team played poorly against Trinity Valley and Fort Worth Country Day. The Hawks finished out the conference with an even five wins and five losses.

Three Cistercian players won post-season honors as Jay Lipscomb was chosen for the All-Conference First Team, and Chris Hellman and Mike Smith were awarded Honorable Mentions. Juniors Jay Lipscomb and Peter Godat were chosen All-Tourney First Team in both the Tyler Street and Trinity Christian tournaments. With only two seniors leaving, the team's record next year should be better and a first place contender will undoubtedly emerge.

UPPER SCHOOL TRACK. The track team finished fourth at the T.I.S.C. meet, missing third place by only one point. Two performances achieved All Conference status - a second place finish in the 100 yard dash by Clint Crawford and a second place in the 440 yard dash by Jay Lipscomb. However, there were others who placed in the top six positions in the competition - Peter Godat (440 and high jump), Harold Phillips (high jump and long jump), Mark Wehrmann (shot put), Joe Shea (440 relay), Oscar Arras (440 relay), Scott Zoppoth (mile relay), and John Daughety (mile relay).

During the season several freshmen records were set. Charlie Chitwood ran exceptionally good times in the 120 high hurdles (18.4) and the 330 low hurdles (44.8). Kevin Glasheen set the new mark in the two mile run (11.26.67). Tim Strenk bettered the old mark with a toss of 37′ 11 ¾″ in the shot put. A new mark in the discus was recorded after a throw by Mike Donohoe of 90′ 4″.

The 1977 middle school team finished in fourth place at the T.I.S.C. meet, barely edging out Dallas Christian. However, most of the points went to Fort Worth Country Day. Our boys performed well at the various meets and broke quite a few school and conference track records. The 440 relay team of John Safranek, Paul Hamer, Owen Hannay and John Phillips placed second with a time of 49.8.

Michael Burns broke the school record for the 440 dash with his 58.0 time, and set a new 880 conference record as well with his first place time of 2:16.2.

Tom Strenk set new records in both the 120 high hurdles (19.36) and 330 low hurdles (48.7). Chip Hansen also broke several records in the hurdles at the beginning of the year and did well at the T.I.S.C. meet. Owen Hannay placed in the 100 yard dash, an event in which several weeks earlier he had set a new school record of 11.1

The shotput team members included Michael Huang and John Phillips. Owen Hannay participated in the long jump and Paul Hamer in the discus throw. Michael Burns and Owen Hannay entered in the high jump competition.

The whole track team contributed in spirit and enthusiasm to this season's effort.

MIDDLE SCHOOL FOOTBALL

The Middle School Hawks battled injury and lack of size throughout the '76 football season but finished with a respectable 4 - 6 record and two conference wins.

Although starting quarterback Owen Hannay missed the opening game with a broken arm, the Hawks trounced Garland Christian with a score of 22 - 0. An assortment of broken plays and penalties was present, but the Hawks put the points on the board with two long runs by Paul Hamer and one by Skip Safranek. Lineman Bob Walker led a stiff defense which held the Swordsmen to only 53 yards rushing and 14 yards passing.

Cistercian overcame a numerically small but tough Christ The King eleven by a 12 - 6 margin in their second victory. Tom Strenk and John Safranek performed well on offense as a bending but never breaking defense stopped the Crusaders when necessary to win.

Size made the difference in the Middle School's defeat in the game against First Baptist. An early and only score set up by a Saf-ranek run proved to be insufficient as late in the game the Saints scored and tacked on the winning 2 points. A determined Hawk team tried to rally but time ran out.

Injury further hindered the Hawks when starting linemen Walker and Huang were lost to knee injuries prior to the first conference game against Fort Worth Country Day. An outsized defense was hurt on the ground for 14 points while a spattering offense could not move consistently enough for scores.

MIDDLE SCHOOL FOOTBALL

Defeat begot defeat as the Hawks went down to St. Lukes 12 - 0. urnovers lead to the loss as a weak first half set the stage for the ttle weary Hawks.

Victory finally came against the Cardinals of Ft. Worth Christian a 20 - 0 Hawk revival. Quarterback Hannay proved his worth in s first game out of a cast. Safranek scored twice and Scott aayer stood out on defense.

Bad weather at Trinity Valley added to the discomfort as the awks fell to the Trojans 47 - 14. Turnovers and penalties scarred awk scoring drives while the Trojan offense freely ran over the eld.

A well-needed rest from conference play was spoiled by a disap- ointing loss to St. Monica. The outsized Hawk line managed to old the Bearcats to only one touchdown and the Hawks made an herwise exceptional showing.

Homecoming weekend was no relief as Cistercian went down to allas Christian 20 - 0. The score does not reflect the performance the Hawk defense which throughout the game held back the hargers.

The season ended on a good note in a 14 - 6 victory over rival reenhill. The offensive finally made a showing to dispel the mor that size makes might and opened big holes in the Hornet efensive line.

Hopes for next year's team are high. The expanded Form III con- ibuted 35 of the 40 players many of whom gained much experi- nce in separately scheduled seventh grade games this year. hough these games netted only one victory, their worth should be vident in next year's squad.

Middle School Basketball

MIDDLE SCHOOL BASKETBALL

The '76-'77 Middle School basketball team improved greatly from last season, finishing the year at 19-12 and 5-5 in conference.

The Hawks avenged last year's loss to Tyler Street with a 28-23 victory, Hannay leading the scoring with eighteen points, eight of those in the fourth quarter. After a disappointing loss to St. Lukes, Cistercian beat Christ the King on fast breaks.

Pat Hellman sunk twenty-two of the team's thirty-six points. On the next day the Hawks lost 22-21 to the same team after a base-line shot missed with twenty seconds left. Another defeat came at the hands of Trinity Christian when a one-point half-time lead was shattered by a full-court press resulting in a 27-16 defeat. Substituting for a first-round tournament dropout, Cistercian beat St. John's with a strong fourth quarter in the consolation game. Hannay was named to the all-tournament team.

The first conference game against Trinity Valley was close at the start, then became a runaway for the Trojans as they won, 39-24. Cistercian folded in the second half against Greenhill to lose 34-25 the following week, then prepared to play Dallas Christian at home. The Chargers were unstoppable as their main weapon, a six-foot four-inch, eighth-grader racked up twenty-seven points in a 47-28 rout. The team traveled to Country Day minus Owen Hannay and seemed to be fine as the first half ended 17-14 in the Falcon's favor. However, the opposition scored twenty-three points in the fourth quarter to drub the Hawks 47-23. The only conference victory in three years came when Cistercian beat Fort Worth Christian by holding off a strong comeback after leading the whole game. Trinity Valley remained too strong for the Hawks as they took it to the team, 39-22. A second 33-21 win at Fort Worth Christian came easily with a strong game by all players. Victory inspired the Hawks as they jumped to a quick 10-0 lead against Greenhill. Breaking a strong press many times, Cistercian was faced with a one point lead and thirty-five seconds left. Paul Hamer slapped a pass away, Hellman went after it, and was fouled. He made both shots to win the game despite a late Hornet basket, 38-37. Phillips and Hannay were high point men with ten apiece. By far the most rewarding game of the season was a 27-22 win over Country Day, making this year's team the only middle school basketball team to beat the Falcons. Quick baskets by Burns and free throws by Mike Shea proved to be the difference in an otherwise even game. The season ended with conference champs Dallas Christian forfeiting.

In her first production at Cistercian, Rebecca Ramsey Walker proved most successful. She did not know any of the boys here. She had to pick a cast quickly based on first impressions. Her perception was good, for the roles were well cast by any standards, correlating physical appearance, voice, and character of the actor with a complimentary role. The performance was warmly received and effective, and has added a new dimension in theatrical productions at Cistercian.
